The Hospitality Minnesota Education Foundation (HMEF) was created to educate and develop future employees/leaders for the hospitality industry and to promote hospitality as an industry of great opportunity.

HMEF offers a specialized "ProStart" curriculum for high school students that allows them to gain comprehensive hospitality skills and introduces them to a wide range of hospitality career opportunities. Currently, 34 Minnesota high schools offer the ProStart program, with 1,000 student participants. HMEF annually awards scholarships to students pursuing post-secondary education for careers in restaurant or lodging management.
